

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Central Alberta Theatre (CAT) gratefully acknowledges that the Indigenous traditional territories upon which we live and tell stories are represented by Treaty 6 (north of the river) and 7 (south of the river.) It is also a Métis gathering site. We acknowledge the many First Nations, Métis, and Inuit people whose footsteps have marked these lands since time immemorial. We are grateful for their respectful stewardship that enable us all to enjoy the riches of this territory.

ABOUT CAT

VISION: Storytelling on stage enriching lives, lifting spirits and deepening understanding of our human connections.

Formed in 1970, Central Alberta Theatre is a registered Canadian Charity providing live theatre experiences for the residents of Red Deer and the surrounding area. CAT operates the Red Deer Memorial Centre, a 700 seat venue, offering live music, theatre, speakers and other entertainment events on behalf of the City of Red Deer.

CAT's mission is to maintain an active not-for-profit organization dedicated to the production of first-rate performances and learning opportunities for the love of live, local theatre. We sustainably operate a Performing Arts space to facilitate cultural expression and community engagement.

We have been registered as a nonprofit organization with the province of Alberta since 1977, and are also registered with Revenue Canada as a Charitable organization. # 118842632 RR 0001

 "Bright, spacious basement suite.
 View any night between seven and nine."

Any Night
 By Daniel Arnold
 and Medina Hahn
 Directed by Ronen Eagles

Mina Murray takes center stage as Dracula's intended bride and primary detective. Uncovering the mystery targeting her soul, Mina battles to resist Dracula's ultimate plan in this thrilling adaptation of Steven Dietz's classic tale. Play not recommended for children.

Troubled dancer Anna moves into a new apartment, where her sleep turns sinister. As night terrors intensify, she must unravel the line between dream and reality to survive. A suspenseful exploration of trust and fear.

Miss Bennet:
Christmas at Pemberley
 by Lauren Gunderson & Margo Melcon
 November 29 - December 15, 2024
 Directed by Wanda Oler & Robyn Jeffrey

Mary Bennet, tired of being the dutiful middle sister, finds herself the unlikely heroine. A surprise guest at Pemberley during Christmas offers Mary a chance for independence, intellectual connection, and love.

What happens when you mix hairspray, headlice, and a little dab of Elvis?

Hairlarity!

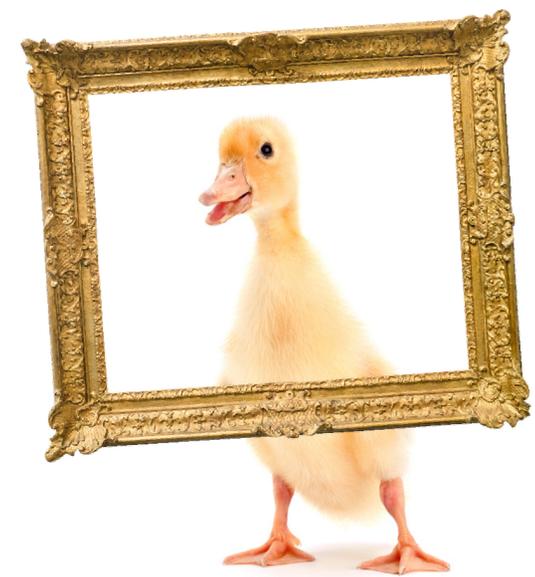

POUF!

by lou Elyde

Directed by Glorene Ellis
Feb 7 - 16, 2025

In 1958, Betty, a bored housewife, secretly opens a salon in her home, changing lives with her hair-styling prowess. This "uplifting" comedy mixes hair spray, head lice, and laughter, with a little dab of Elvis.

Opal's
MILLION DOLLAR
 DUCK
 by John Patrick

March 7 - 16, 2025

Desmond and Queenie, summer-stock actors, try to swindle Opal out of a painting they believe is valuable. Hilarity ensues as their schemes go awry in this comedic tale of mistaken identity and greed.
